FORESTER

Designed around the "Best Balance for Active Life" concept, the new Forester blends and integrates three key elements—packaging, drivability, and the environment—at an advanced level. With enhanced environmental performance, the new Forester is a crossover SUV that is capable of eliciting real feelings of "simple operation, a sense of reassurance as well as of a pleasant drive in comfort" from the wide-ranging lifestyle perspectives of all drivers and passengers. This concept has resonated with many customers all over the world, recording strong sales.
