Notice Regarding the Impact of Typhoon 19 (Hagibis)
(Second report)

Subaru Corporation extends its deepest condolences to those affected by Typhoon 19 (Hagibis).

Today, Subaru has restarted operations at its Gunma Plant (specifically, the Main, Yajima, and Oizumi plants)* that had been suspended since the afternoon shift (starting at 15:15) of October 16. As notified on October 16, operations at the Gunma Plant had been suspended due to some cases of Typhoon 19 damage at our suppliers.

Impact on Subaru's consolidated financial performance is under study. We will make further announcement if deemed necessary.

* The Main and Yajima plants are automobile plants and the Oizumi plant is an engine and transmission plant.
